Eight Named To Police Force By City Council

Re-scheduled matters carried over from Monday and Tuesday morning in the City Commission meeting
the City Police Force staff and setting up plans for the eventual training of William Carbonette, named to the position of Special Police Co-ordinator or Special Investigating Officer.

Chief of Police Robert Good-sell was asked by Mayor Carve to explain by what authority he had placed Carbonette to the police force, and during the mayor's absence from the city.

Goodsell said he hired Carbonette on the recommendation of Commissioners William Frisbie and Andre Arceneaux.
At this point Commissioner Arceneaux made a motion in which he said that according to the records spread on the minutes the only officially hired man on the police force was Robert Goodsell. He named in his motion eight men to be included in the regular police force: Chief of Police Robert Goodsell, Eric Neelase, Douglas Williams, Alvin Favre, Emmett Ellis, William Tate,
Larry Lader and William Carbonette. Voting "Aye" were Commissioners William Frisbie and Andre Arceneaux, opposing the motion was Mayor Warren J. Carver who said:
"I am against employing eight men on the police force. I say we only need six."

Arceneaux said: "I would like to see Mr. Carbonette used as a special investigator. I would like Billy to take special training in narcotics. We need one. Many cases are lost at court because of incomplete information on reports."

According to Chief of Police Goodsell there is a basic police class on law enforcement which runs for a period of 10 weeks in Jackson, however, Goodsell said it would be a hardship on a man to travel this distance and that it would involve some 4,000 miles of travel. Goodsell said: "I am not in favor of the

City Police Force Salary Revealed

Following the naming on Tuesday morning of eight police officers by the City Commissioners to be on the regularly employed staff and of the request of a reporter Mayor Warren G. Carver released figures showing that a total amount of $3,979 was paid to police from city funds for the month of September. The mayor's report showed the following.

Name of Policeman	Salary
William A. Tate	$497.00
Robert Goodsell	422.00
Eric Neelase	546.00
Alvin Favre	450.00
Douglas Williams	374.00
Emmett Ellis	512.00
Larry Lader	490.00
H. Boudreau	420.00
Geraldine Edmondson	90.00
Dolores Favre	50.00
Plus:
$150.00 overtime or $580.00	total.

10 weeks course". At the Tuesday meeting no decision was made with reference to special training purportedly needed to qualify Carbonette as a special investigator.

Arceneaux said should Carbonette qualify as a special investigator by a successful completion of a course for police officers then his salary would be paid through the office of the Law Enforcement Act and not at the cost of the city tax payers.

Following the meeting Arc-neaux told this reporter that Goodsell actually did not have a recommendation from the Commissioners to hire Carbonette. He said: "I will take the responsibility, however, since I did tell Goodsell that he should run his own department. According to Arc-neaux, Goodsell's initiative in the hiring was actually on assumption. Arcneaux said: "I would not want people to think we would go behind the Mayor's back and during his absence make a recommendation of this kind."

Curet stated that the investigation was incomplete and no

Yacht Club In Need Of Sewerage System

"I want to know", asked Mrs. Bea Georgi on Monday when she appeared before the Mayor and City Commissioners of Bay St. Louis, "why the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club has not connected to the city's sewerage system?"

Following Hurricane Camille when records at the Hancock County Health Department were destroyed, the Hancock County Sanitary Inspector,
Wayne Alliston, had a survey made. The survey revealed, according to Alliston, that an estimated over 200 residences and establishments within the City of Bay St. Louis and including the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club had not connected to the city's sewerage system. Reportedly letters were sent out by the Health Department during May requesting citizens to contact the health department within a period of two weeks relative to connecting to the City sewerage system.

When Alliston was asked if the sewage from the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club was a source of pollution to the Bay of St. Louis he replied: "Well, let's say it certainly isn't doing any good."

At the meeting Mrs. Georgi was told by Commissioner Frisbie the Bay-Waveland
Yacht Club system was below (or lower) than the city system and they (The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club) would have to put in a lift station and it was an expensive operation. Mr. Frisbie said she had been given to understand that the City of Bay St. Louis has agreed to install a "cub out", a connection point and until such club out was made available the Bay Waveland Yacht Club could not connect, even though they installed the necessary equipment. Commissioner Frisbie at this point said the city had fulfilled its obligations. Mrs.
Georgi said she got the impression from Frisbie that the DEBBIE BLACKLEDGE is crowned Junior Miss for 1970 by Miss Jane Viguerie, 1968 Junior Miss. The Junior Miss Pageant was held Saturday night at St. Joseph Academy Gymnasium. Dabbe is a student at Bay Senior High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blackledge.

Four automobile accidents and an accidental shooting resulted in three deaths and numerous injuries over the weekend in Hancock County.

George Denginger III, 17, was killed Friday night when the car in which he was driving hit a utility pole on Beach Boulvard in Waveland. The Hancock County Sheriff's office identified the other passengers in the car as Lynette Lader, 139
State Street, Larraine Kild, 450 Ulman Ave., and Bob Chivino, 408 Hancock St., all of Bay St. Louis.

Miss Lader was taken to Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans where surgery was performed. She is listed in satisfactory condition. Miss Kild and Miss Chivino were taken to Hancock General Hospital. Miss Kild was released Sunday and Miss Chivino was released Monday.

In an automobile accident that occurred Sunday at 8:20 p.m. on Highway 803 and Bayou LaCrotte Bridge, Harold Waltman, 21, was killed when the car in which he was riding collided with an automobile driven by Justice of the Peace, Bobby McQueen. Passengers in the Waltman car were identified by the Sheriff's office as James and Melvin Wainwright of Bay St. Louis, James Singlo-fory of Lucedale and Fred Lader of DeLisle. Investigating officers were Deputies Robert Tartavalle and John Lader of the Sheriff's Department and Miss. Highway Patrolman Hortor and Grice.

Reports were incomplete on an accidental shooting that resulted in the death of Gerald Lader, 17, of White Cypress
Community. Sheriff Fred Curet gave this account of the incident: "Lader was in his uncle's home when E. J. Spiora, Jr. walked in holding a 12-gauge shotgun. The gun went off accidentally and killed Lader. This is all the information we have at this time."

Lader was a senior at Hancock North Central.

Lauren Sonier is listed in critical condition at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans as the result of an accident that occurred early Saturday morning. Reports on the accident are incomplete but Deputy Lee Woods of the Hancock County Sheriff's office was on duty at Highway 80 and 607 where the accident occurred.
According to Sheriff Fred Curet, Sonier apparently lost control of his car and struck a culvert.

The Sheriff's office also reported an accident on Sunday at 9 p.m. on Highway 803 and Central Rd. A late model car driven by Melvin Hobart reportedly collided with an automobile driven by Eugene Wainmason of Bay St. Louis.

Off Advocates Special Deputy Plan

A Law Enforcement officer in Jackson is watching for the country. Curat when in Jackson, he was given a course in law enforcement from six and could satisfy a policeman special investigation city police in the world of criminals. Curat said they are bound to work on a certain crime. Curat said and added routine matters, such as watching for traffic violations, seeing pedestrians, school children, and bicyclist safety across heavily travelled streets and highways was time consuming and necessary for public safety. "Patrols, special gatherings, football games -- all those things come under routine police duties", Curat explained. When asked if he could work with Chief of Police Gerald Curat said: "Frankly, I cannot work with that man. He has never given me any cooperation."

When asked if he felt he could work with the recently city-employed policeman, Bill Carbonatto, Curat said: "I know Carbonatto. He has had some training. In fact he was at one time on our (County) staff. I think he would make a good man to co-ordinate efforts with the County." Curat said he felt Carbonatto would be willing to take some law enforcement training and when asked how expenses for such training are met Curat said: "That course would not cost the city any money. It is provided through the Law Enforcement Act." "Those courses are going on all the time" Curat said, "In fact there is one coming up in Louisiana in January". Curat said: "We are going to have to get a closer relationship between the city and the county. It is necessary, if we are to function."

Mayor Explains Expenditures

In a recent interview Mayor Warren J. Carver was asked to give a break-down on a published 1970-71 City Budget report involving the amount of $1,546,192.00 as the proposed expenditures for a 12 months period for the community not including the Utilities System costs. Mayor Carver said: "Using a population of 6,500 for the community and this figure is based on the unofficial 1970 census count, this means a citizen per capita operating cost of $237.88 for the year."

In a discussion of the source of the revenues the mayor said: "Not all of the funds required come from direct taxation of the Bay St. Louis citizen." He said the revenues of the City Fund includes fines, fees of various kinds, state appropriations and "a small pro rata share of County Funds". The mayor said he estimated the local citizen provides approximately fifty percent of the operating costs of the Municipal Separate School District.

"The fact remains", admitted Carver, "the cost of local government comes either directly or indirectly from the pockets of the taxpayer."

In a comprehensive breakdown of the tax monies Carver said: "With every $10.00 tax payment into the City treasury in 1971 made by the taxpayer $2.60 will go toward General City operating expenses, 12 toward Parks and Playgrounds and the library, $1.56 will go towards bonds and interest payments and $5.72 will go toward School Operating costs."

Tax payers with this information may readily take their tax statements and ascertain what percentage of their tax dollar goes to the sundry operating costs.

Teacher Needed

A position is waiting for some lady interested in teaching in a school for retarded children, said Mrs. C. R. Beyer who serves as secretary for the Hancock County United Funds program. The School for the Retarded is one of 12 agencies supported by the program.

Mrs. Beyer said any one holding a degree in education would be sent to University of Southern Mississippi and given a six weeks special course free of charge and also receive a $75 per week salary while at Southern and training for the work.

The course of study is a requirement prior to obtaining a permit to teach in the school, it was stated.

Meeting Called To Form Council

Delmar E. Wilcox, President of the Hancock County Electrical Contractors Association, has called a meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, November 25, at Trapani's Restaurant on Highway 90. Invited to the meeting are contractors, carpenters, plumbers, electricians and all persons whose occupation centers around the building profession.

Wilcox said: "The purpose of this meeting is to form a council of the building trades within Hancock County." Wilcox said such a council would be of benefit to both the craftsman and to the builder. It would set up standards to curtail the sub-standard practices sometimes used by poorly qualified workmen. Wilcox said reportedly building practices employed by some itinerant contractors and crews were not only unsatisfactory but there had been cases where people were duped out of their money and had paid in advance for work they never intended to complete.

Wilcox said: "This is an open meeting. All are welcome and we hope a great many of

"Stub out" had been installed. However, when a reporter for the Echo asked Commissioner Frisbie at a hearing the following day whether or not the "stub out" had been installed he refused to answer the question and left the room. Attorney for the city, Gerald Cox told the reporter he did not know whether or not such a connection was in existence. Mayor Carver said: "That is Bill Frisbie's Department and if you cannot get an answer from him you can contact the engineers who laid down the city's sewerage system."

In an interview with acting Sanitary Inspector, Louis Fernandez on Tuesday afternoon the reporter was told many members of the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club were making complaints about the club and ask whether the club had been hooked on to city sewerage. He said, they expressed concern about pollution in the swimming area and wanted to be connected to the city's sewerage system. Mr. Fernandez said: "If the city has not installed the stub out it would seem logical that they made this connection first. In that way the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club would know how to install their sewerage line to make a direct hook-up with the city. Pipe lines are expensive and the suggestion I would make would be that the Mayor and City Commissioners meet with the Commodore and Board of Governors of the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club and plan together to insure an installation without unnecessary costs to either the city or the club."

When Mr. Fernandez was asked if, indeed, the waters of the Bay of St. Louis had been polluted he said: "Any raw sewage constitutes pollution."

Mrs. Georgi said that she intended to report the matter to the State Health Department in Jackson as well as the Mississippi Air and Water Pollution Board located in that city. City Attorney Cox said it was the responsibility of landowners to pay any and all expenses incurred in getting their sewerage lines to a connection point with the city-sewerage system and the responsibility of the city to provide a connection to the line and on city-owned property.

"If the Yacht Club does not connect with the city sewerage system legal action will be taken," Fernandez said.

Moderates Narcotics Program

giving concern over narcotics evidenced at a meeting in the Main Street
Church with Sheriff
Curet moderating a program through the cooperation of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department on November 8.

Speaking of the growing problem in Hancock County, Sheriff Curet said: "We are faced daily with youngsters
and respectable families involved with drug use and abuse." And Curet said: "Unless we can stem this by cooperation from all things will get worse."

Moderates

Participation
Expected

The Hancock County United Fund Drive as of Wednesday had a total of $25,537.45 in donations and payroll pledges, according to figures released by Mrs. C. R. Beyer, secretary of that organization.
"We will almost certainly go over our goal of $26,000," said Ed Hall who is chairman of the drive. Hall said plans are to wait until the last week of the month to have committee workers call on business establishments and those who are expected to cooperate with the payroll plan of pledging. A final report will be given at the end of the month, it was reported.

"Good Shoes Or Bust"

you think of shoes, do bras also come to mind? No?
Think again because these two feminine necessities do have similar attributes. Or so says Charles Stin, the president of the Selby Shoe Company.

When buying for shoes, one looks for fit, comfort and support, the qualities one requires in a good bra. Find out for yourself if you agree or disagree by answering the same provoking questions were asked in the various

1. Which is more important to you, the styling or fit of a shoe (bra)?

2. If you could find a fashionable shoe or bra which would fit well and wear well too, would you be willing to pay more for it, and if so, how much? $3 - $5 - $10 - twice the price?

Mr. Stin developed his theory further and began applying it to his own company. It must have made some sense because Selby won the recognition of the American Designers Awards in May of this year, an award given to designers and American shoe manufacturers who combine good design, technical know-how and American talent to create well-styled,
high quality leather footwear.
The hypothesis would seem to hold.

Griffin was named as ex-officio Chairman of the Board for the term of one year.

Those elected to serve a two year term on the board include Russell Chapman, Ames Kergosien, Terry Feeney, William Breland, Ray Bordages, Garland Belote and the Reverend Charles Johnson. Board members serve on a rotation basis and the full complement of board members is composed of 15 members.

An attractive arrangement of dried flowers and ceramic fruits in the Thanksgiving motif was used on the tables and out of town dignitaries included Robert Britton, director of the Governor's Emergency Council, Gulfport; and the Honorable Senator Martin Smith (Dem.) of Poplarville. Also attending were Bay St. Louis Mayor Warren J. Carver, Commissioners Andre Arceneaux and William Frisbie and Sheriff Fred St. Julien.

Stimulating discussions marked the occasion as motions were made, discussed and voted upon. Executive Director of the Chamber, Talmadge Rayborn, established 500 as the goal for the membership drive and a motion carried which makes the Director of the Port and Harbor an honorary member of the Chamber Board.

On Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce on Highway 90 beginning at 7:30 there will be a meeting of the Board and an election of officers.

At the conclusion of the banquet Rayborn reviewed the work done by the chamber members during the past year and presented plans for work to be accomplished prior to giving out cards for the membership drive. An estimated 130 members and guests attended the banquet.

Problems Revealed By Health Officer

Louis H. Jobs, Jr., M.D., the Health Officer now serving Harrison, Hancock and Pearl River Counties, said: "The increase in population and industry and the phenomenal increase in 'throw-away' containers have created a serious problem in the disposal of solid wastes". He said unauthorized dumps and improperly operated dumps are offensive to the sight and smell and provide ideal breeding places for rats. A comprehensive study of this problem is being made by the State Health Department, it was reported.

In touching on other health problems Jobs said the water supplies and sewage disposal problems consume much time and effort by the sanitarians in the health department. "Here again", Dr. Jobs said: "The rapid growth of population, the nature of the soil, and the high water table requires changes in methods. Septic tanks can no longer handle the volume of sewage without polluting our drainage ditches, bays, bays and the Mississippi Sound."

COUNCIL TO GIVE FIRST AID COURSE

Council To Give First Aid Course

The Bay St. Louis Civil Defense Council announces that it will conduct a Medical Self Help Course, consisting of four two-hour training sessions. Those completing the course will be presented an appropriate certificate and will become a greater asset within their community.

This project will consist of live films, instruction, and question and answer periods. The general public is invited and requested to attend and benefit from this instruction program.

This course will be taught by Willie Bradley, Physical Education Instructor at Bay High School who is a licensed Red Cross First Aid Instructor.

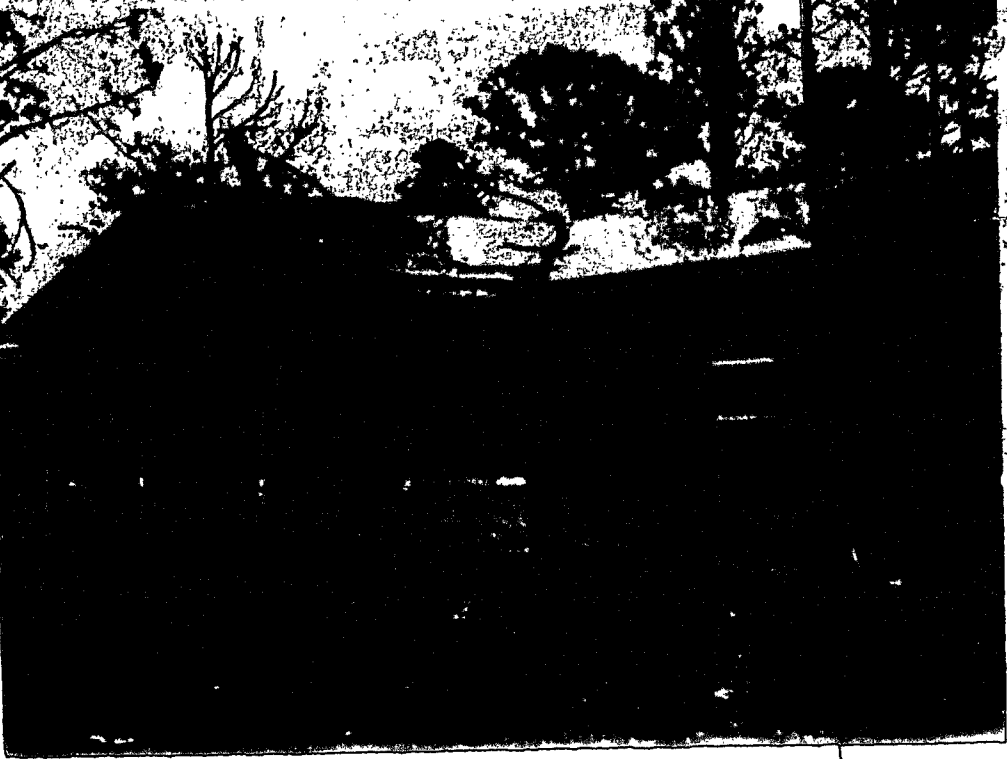

Medical Self Help is in reality a course in first aid. Its fundamental objective is to teach individuals how to take care of themselves until the doctor or the nurse arrives and if they do not arrive to do their best to work out a program of living under adverse conditions. These courses are aimed at reducing the number of casualties that could conceivably result from a nuclear attack or some natural disaster.

The location will be at the Bay St. Louis Civil Defense Headquarters in the Valena C. Jones School on the Spanish Trail and will be held between the hours of 8:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. on November 25 and December 2, 9, 16.

HAZEL HAYS OF BAY ST. LOUIS ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HER NEW NOVA FROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALES. SALESMAN FRITZ PERANICH AS HER FRIEND MRS. DIEBOLD WITNESSES THE TRANSACTION.

Hazel Hays of Bay St. Louis was in need of a new car. She had owned two other Chevys and was very well satisfied with their performance. Since she has lived in Bay St. Louis, she had received very good service from Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, so she decided that she would buy a Chevrolet. Mrs. Hays' very good friend Mrs. Leola Peranich recommended that she see Fritz Peranich at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet as he had sold her a new car and she was well satisfied with the deal. Fritz gave her a very good deal, like he gives his customers and Mrs. Hays wants to recommend Peranich and Lamar-Lane Chevrolet to all of her friends. Thinking about buying a new car, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for salesman Fritz Peranich, he will give you many dollars. LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET, INC. Bay St. Louis, Miss. ### Grant Received By School District Superintendent J. D. McCullough of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District announced that approval has been received for a grant of $30,348.00 to the school district under the Emergency School Assistance Program. This program is designed to render assistance to local school districts which have recently implemented plans for school desegregation.

The Bay St. Louis Schools are using their share of these funds to improve the quality of education in the lower grades. The Title I program as previously announced is being concentrated toward improved instruction in the first and second grades. The Emergency School Assistance Program will continue this effort into the third grade. All funds available under both programs must be used to supplement and not supplant regular school funds.

The local advisory committee for the Emergency School Assistance Program is composed of Mrs. Mary Hawkins, Mrs. Pauline Jackson, Mrs. Dolores Farve, Mr. Rogers James, Mr. Billy Sils, and Mr. Donald Caldwell. This committee met Tuesday afternoon to review the application and discuss the program for this year.

Teacher Aides employed under this program include Mrs. Phyllis Seuzenau, Mrs. Norma Richardson, and Mrs. Georgette Torgerson.

Other grants receiving approval for the school district this year include $50,000.00 for replacement of the lights at the athletic complex behind North Bay School and $245,000 for replacement of the Waveland School. These funds were granted by the Governor's Emergency Council formed as a result of hurricanes "Camille" last year. Other federal fund applications are now being processed at the state level. These include Title III, NDEA funds which are matching funds for instructional equipment and supplies, and Title II, ESEA funds which are used for library books and materials.

Superintendent McCullough

stated that he wished to compliment his fire staff for their assistance in securing and utilizing these resources above the regular state and local contributions. He further stated that he felt that his faculty and staff were diligently striving for more than dollars worth of education for every dollar spent the district.

The Jaycee Bowl Game will be played this Friday, November 20, 1970 between Bay High and Vancleave. There are floats being made for this game. Vancleave has already started theirs and are doing a great job. We can't let them have a better float, especially when they are coming over from Vancleave to build the float in Bay St. Louis. So we need volunteers. If you plan to help call 467-6350.

Basketball season has begun. Both the senior high and the junior high have started off well. They won all of the games they have played. We hope they keep on playing as well as they did in their first game.

We have not been getting very many people to volunteer news to the Teen Times. This is Bay St. Louis Teen column. Anything you have, we would be glad to put in. Just call either Lisa White, 467-6350, Betty Johnson, 467-7757 or Tom Flynn, 467-6483.

Food Booth Successful
 The Bay Waveland Junior Auxiliary through their corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sue Hensley, expresses a sincere thanks to the many people of the community who contributed to the success of the Food Booth at the Hancock County Fair. Mrs. Hensley said: "The support and generosity was wonderful and is greatly appreciated."

Mrs. Hensley said she felt that a personal note of thanks should be sent to each participant, however, she added "So many lovely people responded and we might leave someone out, so a public thank you would probably be better."

For Women
 Mrs. Mizz C. Pile

We have just one week in which to prepare for our most meaningful and beautiful holiday—Thanksgiving. But by careful planning we who are home-makers still have time enough to make the day of feasting a gala RED LETTER DAY.

Our check list should begin with the table linens—Is the cloth beautifully pressed? Are the napkins all there? Then the silver may need attention, especially those seldom used serving pieces, dishes, and trays that about the crystal. To run it through some hot water with a bit of household ammonia added will give the sparkle that makes the difference.

Then we should sit down quietly and plan the menu before shopping. Check your pantry to be sure you have all the ingredients needed. Especially double-check the spice rack. Spices have a way of losing their flavor when opened frequently or when subjected to heat. It may be necessary to replace a few.

Should you decide on the traditional Thanksgiving Turkey the directions given on the wrapper are excellent and insure success. Remember to take your bird out of the deep freeze about three days prior to baking time. In the refrigerator it will thaw slowly and when cooked the meat will remain juicy and tender. Baste your fowl with a bit of wine or coo coo and it will brown more evenly. Marmalades and sauces may be prepared well in advance.

Eye-appeal is an important factor when preparing a menu. Festive foods should sparkle with color. Tiny pickled beets or cinnamon spiced apples will give delightful rods. Quick frozen green peas are a pretty shade of green and the shrimp and lobster wedges are beautiful. A fruit salad in which Mandarin orange segments has been added to a good choice. Sharp grated cheese and a dash of paprika adds a lot of zest to a baked stuffed potato. Those little side dishes filled with tasty tid bits take a meal out of the ordinary.

Nothing is more, in keeping with a traditional Thanksgiving, than a carefully arranged bowl of fruit. Apples well polished gleam in the candle light. Grapes are lovely with a bit of frosting. They are pretty, too, just plain and especially when there is a blend of color accomplished by mixing varieties such as green, Tolmy and black. Candied-masters have come to our assistance, too. It is a good idea to buy your candles well in advance to be sure you get the color you want. A last minute substitution can really "throw you".

If the day is cold perhaps you would like to serve a mulled wine.

Prove You Care Do Your Share Cleanup Campaign

Mulled Wine
 2 cups water
 1 cup sugar
 4 cloves
 1 stick cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg
 1 fifth port, claret or burgundy orange or lemon slices Boil water with sugar, cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg for 10 minutes. Add wine and lers gave tips on a good breakfast.

 The next meeting will be held at 4 p.m., December 10 in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.
 Mrs. Maurice George, leader, was assisted by Mrs. George Bostick and Mrs. Joseph Tague in serving refreshments.

He is a graduate of Meridian High School, Meridian Jr. College, William Carey College, and New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served as pastor of Liberty Baptist Church in Tompkins, Mississippi, while in college. He was active in B.S.U. and served as a student summer missionary to California in 1964.

He is married to the former Ellen Brown of Clayton, Alabama. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Brown of Route 3, Clayton. She is a graduate of Clayton High School and Troy State University. Rev. and Mrs. Davis have one son, Steven, who is two years old.

CURRENT HOBBY — University of Mississippi coed Fahey DiBenedetto of Bay St. Louis points out characteristics of some of the tropical and freshwater fish she keeps in a 20-gallon aquarium in her dormitory room at Ole Miss.

Ole Miss Coed's Hobby Sounds Fishy

There's something fishy about Fahey DiBenedetto's dormitory room at the University of Mississippi.

Miss DiBenedetto, a marine biology major from Bay St. Louis, has a 20-gallon aquarium in her room. "Of course I'm interested in fish because of my major," she said, "and also I hope to go into ichthyology, which is the study of fish."

"I don't have a car, and last April after my boyfriend left school there didn't seem to be much diversion, so I bought the aquarium and told my parents it was my birthday present."

Right now she said the aquarium is just for pleasure, but she hopes to adapt it for research later.

Among Fahey's Ole Miss "pets" are angels, tiger barbs, black tetras, neon tetras, zebrafish, guppies, and a kuhli loach. She also has two freshwater catfish, one of which she calls an "upside-down" catfish. "As he grew, his air bladder slipped to his ventral side, so it's easier for him to swim upside down," she explained.

While the project was of some expense initially, Fahey said it really hasn't entailed a great deal of money. None of the fish cost more than a few dollars, but some of the plants were fairly expensive.

To make it look more natural, Fahey found rocks near Batesville to line the bottom of the tank rather than buying artificial ones.

She has bred guppies and hopes to breed some egg layers. However, she said fish in the latter group, which include the angels and tiger barbs, are harder to breed and require more attention.

"There is one problem with the guppies," she noted. "The mother guppy will eat her young, so I put her in a separate breeder" and told everyone on the hall to be ready to take her out as soon as the little ones were born. My roommate and another girl grabbed a net and saved the babies."

There have been several problems with a collegiate aquarium which Fahey describes as "large for a home and certainly large for a dorm room."

The 20-gallon aquarium weighs 200 pounds when filled and can't be moved once the water is in it. To clean it twice a year and transport it back to Ole Miss from the coast she has to put the fish in separate jars of de-chlorinated water according to groups. The plants are then put in another jar and the tank is emptied.

The tank has been a center of dormitory attention. "I asked my roommate if she objected before I got it," she said, "because the pump can be quite noisy, but I think she has really enjoyed it. It attracts people."

Apparently the aquarium has attracted more than just people. Fahey explained that among their most frequent visitors is a turtle which resides down the hall.

Convention In Greenville

Charles A. Russ, III, superintendant of Kln, director, and Harbors Association, Mississippi, represented the county at the Thirtieth annual convention of the waterway group recently in Greenville.

State rivers and harbors commission is affiliated with the Mississippi Rivers and Harbors Association, Washington, D.C. for Charles H. Hill, director, and County Port and Harbors Commission, represents the county of Mississippi.

Two day Greenville session was held with various committee meetings. The Official Book was delivered by Pat Mayor of Greenville, the keynote address was given by Major General A.P. Rollins, president, Mississippi River Commission.

At the hearing of the potential tonnage estimated now being funded Tennessee Tomlinson Waterway, Hancock County delegation confirmed their devotion to prosper at the Hancock County Harbor Industrial Area when they visited traffic on the Yazoo River.

An estimated 203 miles of barge freight clear the Vicksburg District on the Mississippi River. In his talk, Gen. Rollins stressed the importance of setting goals and the correct direction of development priorities for development.

ment must be based on knowledge and facts not on emotion," the general said.

He emphasized that the country's national resources are not inexhaustible and that good planning, not haphazard development must be undertaken.

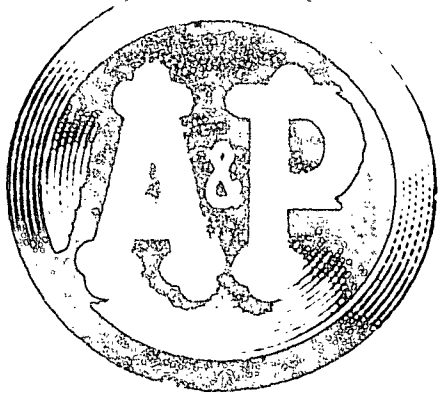

He cited President Richard Nixon's statement that the nation try to seek "Productive harmony between man and nature."

"Let us determine the whole problem and then apply a whole solution. We must provide for the existing population of this nation as well as for the people to come," the keynote speaker said.

He said that the reaction to environmental deterioration was such that millions of Americans fear for themselves and their children and are experiencing a general decrease in the quality of living. By this he meant in the increasing frequency of smog and polluted waterways.

He concluded his remarks to the waterway users and developers by saying, "Plan ahead, remember, it was not raining when Noah built the Ark."

ST. CLARE'S SODALITY. Sodality of Our Lady of St. Clare's Parish, Waveland, will hold their monthly meeting at 2 p.m., Tuesday, November 24, in St. Clare's School cafeteria. All members are asked to attend.

St. Clare's CYO had a very exciting and successful summer. The activities in the month of July were two guitar masses, and various softball games including a tournament held by OLG-CYO. There was a cake sale and two swim parties, one at St. Clare's pool and the other at Sunnyside. Everyone enjoyed a night at Pontchartrain Beach. The first newsletter was published at the end of the month.

In August the activities included working at St. Clare's fair, CYO booths were: White Elephant, Stuffed Animal, Ring Toss and Popcorn Snowball. On the tenth, elections were held. ## KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Another cold front reached this area over the weekend. The weather was in the low 40's Sunday, warming up on Monday. Fishing was good and lots of fish were caught most everywhere. Dove and duck hunting was also good. Both species of birds were reported killed.

Along the fishing line various fish, speckles, white trout, big croakers, channel mullets, and nice flounders are still being caught along the Railroad Bridge and down Bayou Caddy. Fishermen caught live shrimp in the deep hole at this end of the R.R. Bridge and fish were caught from the third flogger and out in the Bay. Flounders seem to be more plentiful this year than ever. They were caught on dead bait, cut bait and by dragging on the bottom with pork rind, the Smoky shrimp and other plugs.

The duck season opened in Mississippi on Saturday, November 14th as did marsh hens, rails, etc.

Green trout and perch are being caught by trolling and on the fly rod with popping bugs as well as with earth worms. The waters of Pearl River and tributaries, are clear. Jourdan River, Rotten Bayou, Bayou Phillip and Bayou LeCrot are good. Fish are being caught daily in these streams.

Among those catching salt water fish along the R.R. Bridge were Al Mercier and yours truly.

John Genia and Bob Jones were fly fishing in Pearl River last Wednesday. Caught a few said John.

Brother Perre is still catching fish and crabs out front. Brother is an old timer at fishing. He said the crabs are giving pretty good.

Hamilton (Smoky) Morel, 77 years old and Francis Carver are still opening oysters believe it or not. Both are commercial fishermen and past masters at catching fish. After Camille "Smoky" said snakes ran him off a shell pile out in the marsh. He said as far as he is concerned a dead snake is a good snake.

Bobbie Bradbury reported catching some big speckles and flounders. He loves to catch both.

Billy Doyle likes any kind of fishing. His specialty is fly fishing. Jimmie Jo Hancock is his fishing partner.

Kenny Caron is another of our local fishermen. He gets his share of speckles, etc.

Shep Richardson says he would rather eat fish than catch 'em. Don't have time to go he claims.

Howard Carver, Lou Monti, Currey Roberts caught 17 big red fish and 70 speckles on their last trip out to the marsh. Howard stated they were hitting like no body's business. All three are good fishermen and usually get their share.

Another bunch catching cod-ice of fish were Emmett De-gram and Gene, Mickey and Kenny with Mickey Rouse and Pete Garcia. Kenny only 13 years old was catching two fish at a time. They were me-um to be said.

Barry Richardson has been getting his share of doves at Piquette and Poplarville. He killed the limit each time out. Have hunted that part of the Bay myself.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK
AL KINGSTON both hunts and fishes. When not cutting hair you can find him outdoors with a fishing rod or gun in his hand. Al also sells hunting and fishing licenses at his barber shop.

Olin Jewell with J. C. Seal do most of their fishing in north La. and at Grand Isle. They caught a lot of big catfish in Lake Washington recently.

Only a few days before Thanksgiving when King Turkey will rule for one day with pumpkin pie as his running mate. The ponies at the Fairgrounds will start the coming season at the track. Thousands off from work will be hunting, fishing, golfing and what have you?

Willard Peterson from up Necaise Crossing way will be busy getting his bird dogs ready for the quail season which opens on December 5th. His hunting partner Dick Mesayer, will be ready too. They both enjoy hunting those delicious eating prize birds.

Andy Anderson was over at his trailer the past weekend with friends. About time to take that annual vacation Andy while the fish are hitting and hunting is good.

Understand Teddy Stechmann has been getting some speckles while fishing off the Hiway bridge.

Was a pleasure talking to our fishing and hunting buddy, Dr. Emile Bertucci. Doc is always a busy man but manages to get in some hunting and fishing. As he puts it, what's better?

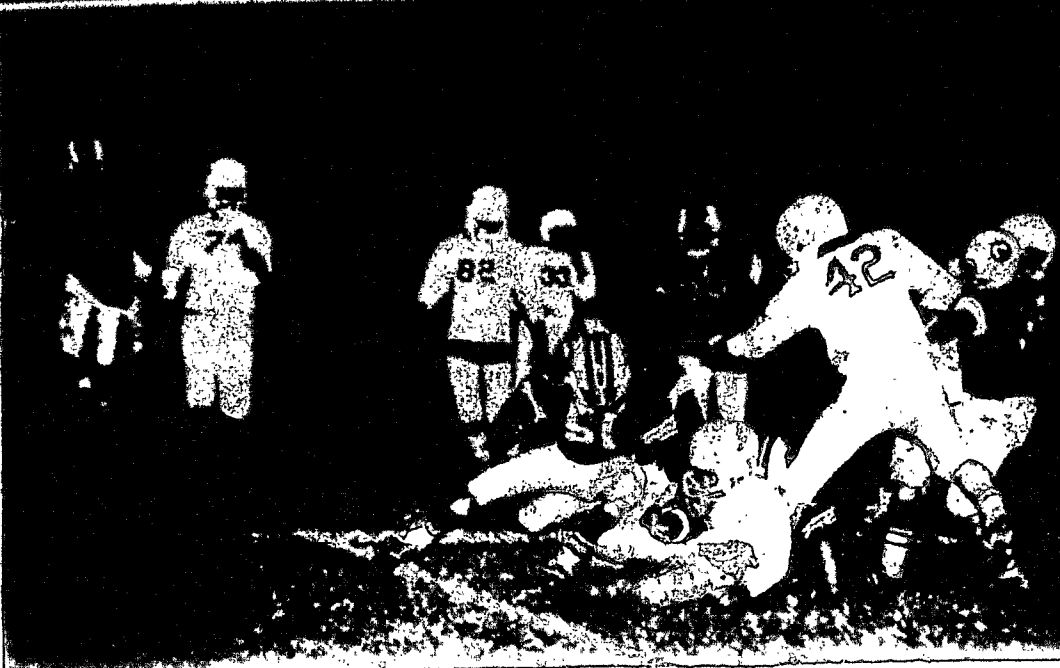

Lloyd Ladner, Jr. and his wife are ardent hunters and do quite a bit of fishing together. They spent the weekend with his parents and was looking for some doves in the meantime.

Better carry that old blunderbus when you go fishing. Never can tell what might cross your path, a squirrel, duck, dove, march hen, etc. Be sure to have the proper licenses and a duck stamp. Game Warden are always on the prowl.

It has been said: Criticism can be avoided by saying nothing, doing nothing and being nothing. Who likes criticism?

The rail season opened on Oct. 31st, on Sora and Virginia, King and Clapper. How many hunters know the difference in them.

The Wilson's snipe season opens in Mississippi on Dec. 12 and runs through Feb. 14. Bag limit 6, possession limit 16. The fast flying little devils are hard to kill, but mighty good eating.

OLG Bears Romp Pearl River Wildcats Past St. Clare's Capture Championship

The Bears of OLG crushed the St. Clare's Warriors at St. Stanislaus Stadium this past Friday night, in a game that had a very unusual ending. St. Clare's forfeited the rest of the game after OLG returned the second half kickoff for a touchdown.

Scoring by OLG came early when FB Greg Hammer, after a long OLG drive, powered it in from the 8 yard line. A pass interception, by Bobby Allen, was run in from 42 yards out, for OLG's second score. The third score for the Bears came when quarterback Bobby Allen, his receivers covered on a pass play, scrambled for the touchdown from 38 yards out. All three extra point runs of the first half were completed. Then, Chip Merlin, on a reverse, returned the second half kickoff 60 yards for the fourth Bear score of the night.

The game was then stopped by the coach of St. Clare's by

The Pearl River Junior College Wildcats captured their second South Division Championship in as many years Saturday night with an impressive 29-22 victory over the Jones Junior College Bobcats in Lohle Holden Stadium at Poplarville.

The Jones Bobcats were the last team with a chance to take the Division crown from the Wildcats, who are now 7-2 on the season. Coach Russell's Wildcats wind up their season Thursday night when they travel to Goodman, Mississippi to play the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs, but the game will have no effect on the championship.

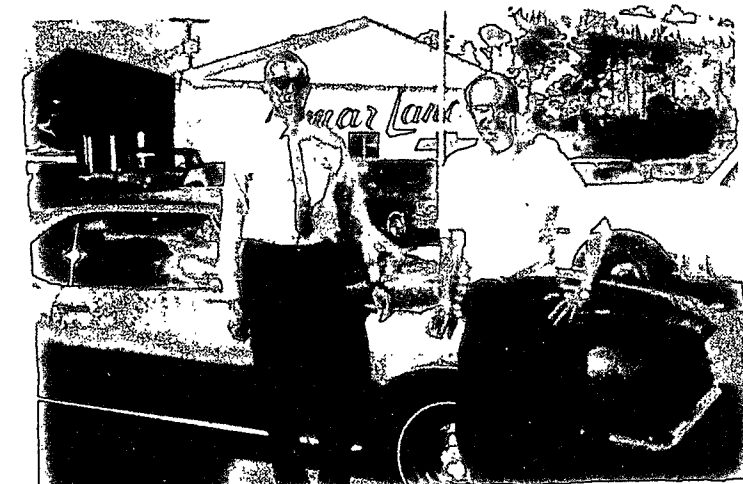

The Wildcats led at the half 23-0, with scores coming on a 33 yard pass from Dennis Wilson to James Parvison, a 33 yard saying that they forfeit the rest of the game.

The Bears play St. James here sometime this coming weekend.

field goal by Gene Estapa, a nine yard run by Wilson and a 15 yard pass from Wilson to Donald Bridges, and two conversion kicks by Glenns Penton.

The Bobcats came to life in the third quarter to add some excitement to what had been a dull night when Jones quarterback, David Cooley, passed to Emmitt Lewis for two touchdowns from four yards and nine yards out. Randall Sullivan ran one two point conversion over and Cooley connected with Lewis for another to make the score 23-16.

Gene Estapa came in for PR. In the fourth quarter and passed 35 yards to Donald Bridges for a touchdown on his first play from scrimmage to tie the game for the Wildcats, before Jones scored a final time on a five yard pass from Cooley to Dale Daniels.
